

- How do I properly maintain my Petzl equipment?

To properly maintain your Petzl equipment, follow the maintenance directions in the Information For Use (IFU) notice that was included with the product. If you no longer have the technical notice, they are available online. Find the product in question on our site and download the IFU from the individual product page. Be sure to download both the General and Specific notices.